7. Miscellaneous

- Fun run will be 18th of September 2015
- Website: Liz Goerl explains changes that she wants to make to the website
- 70th birthday of D. Krankas. The Verein will give him something from the shop as a sign of appreciation.
- Families in need. Requests from family in needs are handled discreetly by two members of The Verein. Only these two members see the details of the request. The two members are Regine von Kleist and Katharine Doeringer with Katja Hippler-Gromis as alternate.
- Freiwilligen Pass : in charge are Liz Goerl and Lynn Brinda
- Facebook: does The Verein need to be on facebook? After weighing the pro and cons of different types of facebook presences it is decided to drop facebook for now and to concentrate on the website as the Verein's online presence.

- Ec open day will be on 22nd of May and June 5th, Leah Hecker will present the supply kits, Katja Hippler-Gromis will introduce The Verein.
- Parent coffee meeting: Katja-Hippler Gromis offers to run the parent coffee meetings under the The Verein umbrella. Susanne Volkmer is worried that the PC board, where Katja initiated the project, could see this as an affront. After a lengthy discussion no conclusion is reached. Wendy Rohrbacher, who heads the membership drive initiative, and Katja Hippler-Gromis will meet to discuss different options. Susan Brown will ask the PC board if they want to keep on running Katja's project.
- There will be a farewell to parting board members on June 5th. Time and place tba.
- The next meetings of The Verein will be
 - 25th of June 2015 in the filmroom
 - 31st of August 2015 in the Hausmeisterwohnung.

Meeting adjourned: 21:12
